

2026 STRUCTURAL ENGINEERING SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Indiana Structural Engineers Association (ISEA) is offering scholarships to outstanding university students studying Structural Engineering and who plan to pursue a professional career in the practice of Structural Engineering.

This year ISEA will award up to three $3,000 scholarships for use towards tuition, books, supplies, or living expenses. The submittal requirements and process, evaluation criteria, and award description for the scholarship program are outlined below.

Participation in the Scholarship Program is offered to candidates enrolled in a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering program at an Indiana college or university, with a focus of study in structural engineering. Candidates must currently be a Junior or Senior and have a commitment to making a professional career in the practice of Structural Engineering.

How to Apply:

1. Complete the application form at https://seain.org/ISEA_Scholarship
2. Provide an official transcript for all universities attended showing courses taken and grades received (a link will be provided after completion of the application form)
3. Provide a letter of recommendation from a professor or employer. Letters of recommendation should be relevant to structural engineering (a link will be provided after completion of the application form)

Deadline:

Application form, transcripts, and letter or recommendation must be submitted by February 9, 2026.

If there are any questions regarding the submittal process or the scholarship program, please contact the ISEA Scholarship Committee (scholarship@seain.org).

Evaluation and Grading Criteria:

Review of candidate submissions by the ISEA Scholarship Committee will be based on the following criteria:

1. Classes and GPA
2. Experiences in extra-curricular activities
3. Career Aspirations
4. Essay
5. Recommendation Letter
6. Award preference will be given to Indiana residents

Award of Scholarship:

Applications will be notified of results by February 18, 2026. The scholarship award recipients will be invited to attend the ISEA Spring Conference on March 5, 2026 to be recognized.

Scholarship awards will be sent via Zelle or a paper check based on preference of award recipient.
